

God – a selection of verses

John 3.16-36:

‘For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

Isaiah 43. (selected verses):

But now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. Do not fear, for I am with you.

Psalm 19. 1:

The heavens declare the glory of God and the heavens proclaim his handiwork.

2 Corinthians 4.6:

For it is God who said, ‘Let light shine out of darkness ...’

John 1. 1-5:

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father’s only son, full of grace and truth.

Acts 17.26-28 (quoting Epimenides):

From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For “In him we live and move and have our being”; as even some of your own poets have said, “For we too are his offspring.”

Psalm 139:

O LORD, you have searched me and known me.
You know when I sit down and when I rise up;
you discern my thoughts from far away.

Where can I go from your spirit?

Or where can I flee from your presence?

If I ascend to heaven, you are there;

if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there.

If I take the wings of the morning and settle at the farthest limits of the sea,

even there your hand shall lead me,

and your right hand shall hold me fast.

John 4.24

God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.’
